

Terms of Contract:

Thank you for choosing Style Revival. Please read and understand the following agreement before consigning any merchandise with us.

- Style Revival has the right to accept or reject any merchandise to be consigned. Acceptance does NOT guarantee the sale of consigned merchandise. Style Revival will price all merchandise with its ability to be resold in mind. New items, with tags attached, will never exceed 50% of the listed retail price. Consignors are allowed to set their own prices if they wish.
- The contract term for all accepted merchandise is 6 months. Consigned items may be marked at a discount towards the end of this period. The consignment period begins the day the item is entered into the inventory system. For those consigning prior to the opening of the store, your 6 months will start once Style Revival is open for business.
- If the consignor wants to reclaim any unsold items, it is their responsibility to schedule a time to pick up their items. Consignors can find availability to schedule a pickup on our website. After the consignment period, all unsold or unclaimed items will become property of Style Revival and will be donated or recycled responsibly.
- Style Revival pays the consignor 40% of the final selling price, before taxes.
